Structuring your Query:

In order to maximize the potential results of your request, please keep the following suggestions in mind

- 1) Be sure to clearly define the scope of your question. Please provide specific names, dates, locations, etc.
- 2) It is important that you explicitly state your intended research objectives.
What do you know and what do you hope to find out?
- 3) In an effort to prevent repetitive research, please be sure to indicate other sources you have already consulted.
