Celebrating the past...

The mission of Worcester Historical Museum is to collect, preserve and interpret Worcester’s history in all time periods and subject areas for audiences of all ages. The Museum offers a robust schedule of exhibitions and programs and has an extensive research library accessed by thousands of visitors, researchers and historians each year.

...to inspire the future.

Worcester Historical Museum continues to grow and prosper, seeking new and exciting ways to adapt to the changes and opportunities of the 21st century. We look forward to a bright future sharing Worcester’s storied past.

WORCESTER IS THE MUSEUM!

With you, we can continue to preserve its history...from yesterday to today and for tomorrow.

Visit www.worcesterhistory.org for up-to-date exhibit and program information.
Corporate Council Membership has its rewards!

You meet the most interesting people at the Worcester Historical Museum! People who built Worcester and gave it the character it has today. People like Esther Forbes and Harvey Ball, Major Taylor and Abbie Hoffman. We also meet new people as we bring our history to schools, festivals, civic and cultural groups. Together, we can honor the city’s legacy, celebrate its cultural diversity, and preserve today and tomorrow’s history. Please consider joining the museum family to make new history. With leadership support, we will continue to inspire individuals to experience the wonder of exploration and discovery of Worcester both inside and outside the museum.
